KILBURN WHITE HORSE TRAIL

A circular walk around the Kilburn White Horse in North Yorkshire.

If you and your pooch love a short sharp start to get the blood pumping, then this little walk is for you. Once you've done the climb, you are rewarded with superb views of the Vale of York and there are even some woods for you to explore on the way down.

Directions

Terrain:

Approximate Postcode: YO61 4AN

The walk begins with a long steep climb including several flights of steps. There is a hand rail to help on the steepest sections. After the initial climb, it is all level and then downhill. There are no stiles on route and the route is free from livestock.
