BYLAND ABBEY & MOUNT SNEVER OBSERVATORY

Byland Abbey and Mount Snever Observatory is a 3.5 mile out and back trail located near Coxwold that features a river and is rated as moderate.

Byland Abbey is a ruined abbey and a small village in the Ryedale district. Impressive remains can still be seen, in the care of English Heritage, including the lower half of a huge rose window which was the inspiration for the same window at York Minster.

Directions

Terrain:

Park at Bylands Abbey and walk to Wass. Then head into Abbey Bank Wood and walk along the Blind Side Gill. Continue along the route to Mount Snever Observatory and then back to the Abbey.
