COXWOLD AND THE WHITE HORSE

A circular walk from the village of Coxwold. This is a good, energetic romp through some beautiful (but little used) countryside, starting and finishing in the historic village of Coxwold.

The Vale of York may be relatively flat, but that doesn't mean the walk is boring. It's charming with great views of the majestic White Horse at Kilburn all the along the walk.

Directions

Terrain:

Approximate Postcode: YO61 4BB

The terrain is moderate, mostly level with just some gentle slopes. The surfaces are mostly grassy paths through fields and on farm tracks plus a very small section of road walking.
